

30th Anniversary Monseñor Romero

"When the church hears the cry of the oppressed it cannot but denounce the social structures that give rise to and perpetuate the misery from which the cry arises." Archbishop Romero

"I do not believe in death without resurrection...If they kill me, I will be resurrected in the Salvadoran people."
Archbishop Romero 1980

March 24th 2010 marks the brutal assassination of the "bishop of the poor" Monseñor Oscar A. Romero

SalvAide, in solidarity with the people of El Salvador will remember the life, and death, of this champion human rights defender together.

Please join us in this remembrance!

Dates of delegation: March 19th – March 25th, 2010

Cost: $2200 (includes airfare, accommodation, transportation, food)

For more information please contact Salvaide@web.net